

Ricardo Bernardino “Sea to Silk” Collection at PFW 2024

Ricardo Bernardino announces the Ricardo Bernardino x Michel Deville *Sea to Silk Collection, a fusion of Art x Fashion, inspired by the wondrous underwater world. The collection will be presented on February 29 at Paris Fashion Week 2024.

The Story

The Sea to Silk Collection is the story of an encounter between the paintings of an artist, Michel Deville, who has been passionately painting throughout his life, and a clothing designer, Ricardo Bernardino, who values the beauty of the paintings and shares them with the world transposed into sumptuous silk shirts.

Beyond being a mere fashion collection, this collaboration represents the revelation of a 70-year artistic legacy, as Michel considered his paintings as his own children, always refusing to sell them.

A Solar Collection

The Sea to Silk Collection radiates happiness and embraces a bold take on luxury. The Ricardo Bernardino X Michel Deville collaboration merges fashion, craftsmanship and art and exudes joy and positivity. The unisex collection pays tribute to living life boldly and expressing one's personality through vibrant colors and elegant style. Each shirt is numbered and available in a limited edition of 50 per design.

Product Information

The silk shirts in the Sea to Silk Collection are part of an exclusive capsule which is the result of a collaboration between designer Ricardo Bernardino and the Swiss colorist painter Michel Deville. The paintings by Michel are inspired by diving sessions in the Indian ocean, and the silk shirts give a feeling of escape and freedom for a purely joyful look. Each shirt is a piece of art!

The collection is meticulously crafted in France and Italy by very talented artisans with a rich history and expertise in silk craftsmanship.
